

Lucy Crowe

Charity Recital - One Mallord Street

“Lucy Crowe dazzles with her every appearance, a young singer extravagantly blessed with look-at-me-and-listen charisma...”

Sunday Times

Vivien McLean and Simon Tarrant are thrilled to invite you to a very special evening of music with the extraordinary soprano, Lucy Crowe, already a tremendous star at Covent Garden.

On Thursday 28th October at 7pm Lucy Crowe will sing privately for us in the chamber setting of One Mallord Street to benefit a children's charity, KINOË (Kids in Need Of Education).

KINOË funds the Akanksha project in Mumbai, which supports the Mukhtangan School for children from the slums. Helping children who would otherwise receive no education, Mukhtangan provides schooling and the opportunity to receive music lessons.

The recital will include a cocktail reception and feature an exclusive retrospective of international artist Consuelo Child-Villiers' paintings.

A limited number of 50 seats are available with proceeds going to Mumbai's Mukhtangan School.

The tickets, priced at £50 each, are payable in advance. We do hope that you will be able to join us for a magical evening of music and art!

Name:

Address:

Email:

Postcode Telephone:

Please tick below:

I/we are able to attend and would like tickets at £50 each. Total price: £.....

I/we are unable to attend

I/we are unable to attend but would like to make a donation of £.....

Cheques to be made payable to 'Artspace' and sent to Vivien McLean at One Mallord Street, London SW3 6DT